All The News That's Fit For Camp

My Dog Bernard/Bernie

By Abby Lindsey

My dog named Bernard is 6 months old. He is a Lagotto Romagnolo dog and has brown and white spots. He is a he. He knows sit and paw for tricks. He likes Zookies; it's a type of dog treat. He is friendly.

He sleeps in a cage and I think he thinks that my Mom is his mom. I take Bernard on a walk every day and sometimes 2 times. My twin Sam scoots outside a lot when Bernard is there. Bernard's nickname is Bernie, we call him that a lot. In two weeks he is gonna go to doggie boot camp when we are going to Cape Cod. He loves pizza, cheerios, milk, red peppers, and puffs (it's a snack). Bernard pees in the house sometimes but sometimes he goes to the door or bites us. Lagotto are water dogs. They are Italian water dogs. They are truffle sniffers.

The...Thing

By M. Frightened

Recently, I met this... um... person who isn't really a person. It preferred to be called it, and had this raspy but squeaky voice. If you're wondering where we met, it was the mall lego shop, where I was getting legos for CAAP. It was scary. I left the mall right away and that's why I didn't donate any legos.

The Weather Today

(a weather report for Tuesday, July 20, 2021)

By Abby Lindsey

Brookline, MA
Tuesday
Mostly sunny

Brookline, MA
Wednesday
Thunderstorm

Brookline, MA
Thursday
Mostly sunny

It is cloudy but warm. It is in the 60s or 70s or maybe 50s. It's not humid like the beginning of summer. It's a little windy, but not too much. It's not raining and gross like the last few days. It's not raining I think for the entire day. A lot of people might go to the playground because it's a day you can. Enjoy it because it might be gross and wet for the rest of the week.

LEGO

By Penny Judd

For the first time, Legos has been offered as a Festival Period offering! Today Legos will be offered as an outside option. It will be at a location that at this time no one knows the name of! So if you are bored of the old, same offerings and you want to try something new, try Legos! Again, they will be at the place that no one knows the name of, so at the Festival Period announcements, pay attention! I hope a lot of people will come.

CIT APPRECIATION DAY

IT IS COMING...

By: Penny Judd

After four long weeks of camp, or a couple days for some of us, a long anticipated day is coming. CIT appreciation is coming! CIT appreciation day go's back to the early days of CAAP, when the day was created. Every year people appreciate CITs, but this Friday, July 23, 2021 we appreciate them slightly more! We do this by making them perform a hilarious play every year! Unfortunately, no one ever tells any campers what the play is, so we will not know what it is until Friday's Noontime Show. So be ready, IT IS COMING...

Chance of Rain

By Penny Judd

There is a chance that the Noontime Show on Wednesday will be delayed to Thursday. If this happens, there will be three Festival Periods in a row! There would also be two Noontime Shows in a row! With the weather how it is and at least 2 minutes of rain a day, anything can happen!

All that we can do is hope that the weather will let us have a fun Noontime Show on Wednesday and a nice Festival Period on Thursday. This is just a warning, but just in case the weather is bad, be prepared!

MINECRAFT

By Abby Lindsey

Minecraft is fun and creative. Minecraft is a sandbox game with servers, cows, pigs, sheep and AXOLOTLs. The monsters in Minecraft are skeletons, zombies, spiders, and my favorite creepers.

Creepers are the main mascot of Minecraft. Servers are basically Minecraft maps that people create but are online, and lots of people can visit them. There are resource packs and mods. You should play this fun and creative sandbox game!

Magical Animal Advice Column Number Last

Interviewers: Roselia Sparklenose, unicorn Sizzles Os'more, dragon
Magical animal seeking advice: None

[Sniff] Hello and [Sniff] welcome back to the last [Sniff] ever article of M.A.A.C! [Sniff.] It's just so sad! I'd like to thank everyone who reads this column. (I know there's a lot of you because I was watching the Yellow Cohort's Noontime Show. SO MANY OF YOU raised your hands for the question about Beastrice Fangstein's kids! The first person they called on got it right!) and I'd like the three campers who gave our writer suggestions on what animals to interview! I'd like to thank the editors and the formatters and counselors for the OTT and everyone who has ever read the OTT! I'd also like to thank-

Sizzles! Quit it! Stop it with all the mushy stuff before I cry too!

Aww... you're sad too! Anything you'd like to say?

I suppose I'd like to thank Kippy and Stacey and everyone else who works here. They all do such a good job. Not as good a job as me, of course, but still a good job.

Oh yeah! And one camper asked our writer what Sizzles and Rosie will do now that the advice column is over. Here's an answer to your question, camper! My grandfather, who is the former head chef at the Dragon Pizza Joint, finally retired, and he gave me his position! Just dial Dragon-Pizza-Fun-Time for an Xtra Xtra Xtra large glitteroni with rainbow sauce!

I will be continuing my successful career as a beautiful, fabulous unicorn by starting a line of designer hoof polishes. Rosie's Rose Red is my new favorite hoof polish color. Petunia Sapphire Jewelhoof Feather Silk Braidmane Sparklenose the sixteenth, my younger sister, likes the color Lovely Lilac-Lavender. Sizzles is partial to Gorgeous Greenie Green. That same camper who asked us what we would be doing also asked about all the people whom we've interviewed, and what they will be doing now. Pheelia the Phoenix is now a gourmet chef, using her fire talent for something useful. Emil Ogrein is becoming the world's best babysitter. Aziana and Anaiza are... still stuck in that fishbowl. Ned the human is doing human things. Beastrice Fangstein loves her life so much now that half her children went to college and she started a line of fashionable bathrobes. The security fairies are moving things out and packing stuff up from the advice room right now. I can see Chief Twinklewings. He really does always look mad. Jeff and the Evil Queen are still in the Evil Queen's lair, plotting. Hannah the Harpy has become a world famous model, because that's how tall I made her look, and lastly, Craig went back to his old job as a beanstalk salesman. That's all we have for the last ever M.A.A.C. article! [Sniff] Farewell!

Goodbye forever!

-Sizzles Os'more

-Roselia Emerald Glitterdust Cleopatra Lily Luisa Braidmane Sparklenose the 47th

P.S. Hey! Reader! Look down! Read this! You were probably expecting no more M.A.A.C ever, ever, ever because that's the impression that Sizzles and Rosie put you under. But guess what! They're wrong! It's actually a whole staged drama that we planned. Surprise, surprise! M.A.A.C. isn't going to start again, Sizzles and Rosie weren't lying about that. But guess what? There's going to be a new show in Sizzles and Rosie's universe next summer called B.+ P.A.S. That's right! Burnt and Petunia's Awesome Show will premiere next summer! Join Burnt, Sizzles's younger cousin, and Me, Rosie's sister Petunia, on our cool new show next summer!

My Plants!

By Jun Ishibashi

I grow so many plants at my house on the rooftop. I grow lots of flowers and vegetables. First I planted sunflower, cosmos, and hollyhock seeds. The sunflowers are already blooming. Second I planted the vegetables. I planted beans, tomato, and cucumbers. The beans can already be picked. The cucumbers have so many big leaves. When I plant the seeds and my plants are growing I have to water them every day. On a very hot day I have to water 2 times.

Special thanks to Grace Gehrenbeck-Shim, for making a substantial Lego donation to CAAP!
